

freedom comes when we add wings to our world through faith, when we know the truth, the truth that makes us free ...

“And you will know the truth and the truth will make you free.” To know the truth is to be constantly aware of the presence and power of God; to know the truth is to see beyond appearances to the wholeness and perfection of God. To know the truth is to know that we are more than flesh and blood; we are spiritual beings, created in God’s image and likeness, and having in us God’s own spirit, the Christ. To know the Truth is to be free ...

Most of us have favorite affirmations that act as wings to our hearts, minds, and spirits. One special one is: I am not bound in personal consciousness. I am free with the freedom of Spirit. This helps me to rise out of the personal thoughts and feelings that bind me. It helps me to let go of the human tendency to criticize or worry or to condemn myself or another. It helps me to extricate myself from emotional involvement in a problem, my own or another’s. It gives me wings to rise up to a high place in mind and heart where I can see with spiritual sight ...

Add Wings To Your World

Wings have always been a symbol of freedom, of the ability to soar above the world. Wings symbolize upliftment. Whatever we add wings to, we see as swift and light and free. On wings of song, we say, on wings of love, on wings of prayer.

We need to add wings to our world, to set ourselves and our lives free from bondage ...

When we add wings to our world, we are not flying away from our world, rather we are adding freedom and power to it. Real

I am free with the freedom of Spirit.
