

Enfolded in God's Love

Whoever you are, wherever you are, we say to you: "God loves you, and we love you." You need never feel alone, unloved, misunderstood, or unappreciated. You are now enfolded in God's love and uplifted, sustained, and blessed through the love and prayers of your friends in Silent Unity.

The great commandment of Jesus Christ is that we love God and one another. At times this may seem to be difficult to do or even impossible. But within us all is the ability to love, though we may be unaware of it or unwilling to express it. Let us consider the words of the apostle John:

"We know and believe the love God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him" (1 Jn. 4:16).

More than anything else in the world, the human heart longs for love. Every person wants to love and be loved, to be needed, understood, and appreciated. Benjamin Disraeli wrote concerning love, "It is the principle of existence and its only end." You, dear friend, are blessed with a great capacity for love, for loving God and others, and for responding with warmth and affection to those who love you.

Jesus said, "The Father himself loves you" (Jn. 16:27). Open your heart and life now to the all-encompassing love of God as it flows into you and through you in a mighty unending stream. Receive it gladly, and let it radiate from you in thought and feeling toward others. Affirm for yourself and others that you abide in God's love and that you are unified in spirit and understanding.

Divine love unfailingly fulfills every need you have. Divine love harmonizes your affairs, manifests itself in you as light and wisdom, and guides you in ways of peace and joy. Divine love works through you to enrich and expand your life and to attract the blessings you seek.

The Christ spirit within you instructs and guides you in developing your consciousness of divine love. As you pray and meditate, love is quickened in your heart and you readily express it in thought, word, and act. You are forever set free from loneliness and depression, for your joyous, expectant attitude draws to you the people and experiences that contribute fully to your life's enrichment and happiness.

You are always enfolded in God's love. Your friends in Silent Unity love you and pray for you.
