Prayer and Study

June 2021

Dear Steve,

There are two fundamental sides to the Unity experience. The first is prayer, used to deepen our awareness of our connection to God and thereby experience our wholeness, abundance and well-being. The second is to learn and grow through study. Myrtle Fillmore led the way in prayer and her husband, Charles Fillmore, led the way in education. Both approaches continue to be key elements within Unity and we invite you to take part in them with us. For as we pray, study and serve together, we change; we grow. Read on ...

Diving deeper into Unity teachings

Tuesday, 15th June; 7.30-9.30pm

Are you interested in learning more about Unity teachings, practices and principles? Either for your own personal development or to become a Unity teacher, minister or group leader?

If so, this evening is for you!

Hosted on Zoom, we will introduce some of Unity's ideas that help us lead a happy, healthy and fulfilling life.

We will also explain the education process, from studying purely for our own sense of well-being and/or to develop a role in Unity for yourself - there is room for you to grow and serve.

Affirmative Prayer Group

Every Thursday, 7.30-8.30pm
(No meeting 3rd June)

Prayer is at the heart of Unity: Affirmative prayer is when we use our words and feelings to connect with our good, believing it is already present in the Mind of God. In Unity, prayer is not about telling God what to do or fix life. Prayer is to connect us with the flow of good that is here but is perhaps not yet seen.

Beginning 10th June, we are starting to look into the way Unity uses denials, or release work, affirmations and the silence to deepen our prayer and meditation experiences.

This will be followed by exploring the five-step prayer process, a technique that Unity teaches that helps us know that we know that prayer is answered.

These evenings can be used to start your personal study in Unity, if you so wish.

"A Father's Love"

Led by Rev Kimerie Mapletoft

Jesus spoke of his father, using Abba which means Papa or Daddy. It is a very loving term and reflects the relationship Jesus had with God. Through his teachings, this energy of love shines through. We will look at this together as we celebrate The Father's Love for all of us.

We will open the meeting from 2.50 pm to connect with each other before and after the service.

Daily Word - Thursday 24th June, 2021

"Authentic living is my key to belonging."

Among the billions of people on this planet, there is only one me. There is not another soul on earth who can make the unique contributions I am here to make.

The most wonderful paradox is that the more I choose authenticity - the truer I am to being myself - the more easily I find myself with people and in situations that show me how much I truly belong.

Embracing and celebrating all that sets me apart helps me see how each one of us is here to do what no other can. Each one of us is a part of the full spectrum of creation and we all belong.

Even as I celebrate differences, I look beyond them to see the divinity that joins us as members of one family, to which we all belong.

*"So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members of one another."
- Romans 12:5*
