

Myrtle's Legacy of Faith

March 2020

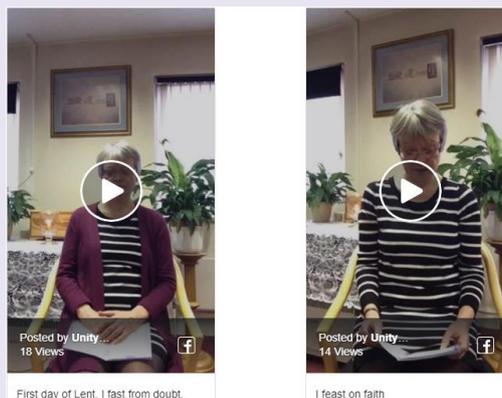

Dear Friend,

Myrtle Fillmore's legacy

I Live in the Now - long before Eckhart Tolle coined the phrase, Myrtle Fillmore, founder of our Silent Unity prayer ministry, encouraged everyone to do this.

Throughout her years of service, Myrtle wrote thousands of letters in reply to correspondents who were asking for prayer. Time and again she encouraged them to 'live in the present, live in the Now, treat every moment as a new beginning ... get a firm hold of the idea that it is what we are Now that really counts.'* Read on

15th March

A Spiritual Communion

This is a very special and sacred guided experience to help us connect with the divine in ourselves and each other. We take the Bible readings from The Last Supper, the energy of love and compassion that was shared by Jesus, the breaking of the bread and taking of wine, and personally share with each other. We take this sacred time to know 'The Christ in me beholds and serves the Christ in you.'

Do join us in person to experience this sacred event. We will start promptly at 3pm.

To join us online at home, please have with you a piece of bread or biscuit, a small amount of juice or wine, a bowl of tepid water and a small towel to wash your hands. You may like to light a candle to help create a sacred space.

If you can find someone to share this experience with at home, you will find it to be even more powerful.

19th April

The Easter Flower Service, with songs, affirmations, readings and more

DAILY WORD

Monday, 9th March 2020

My faith keeps my mind centred on God.

Faith is the lens through which I see the world and my place in it. I believe that God is ever-present, so I practise looking for the good in everything. My faith allows me to see God in all things, even in what I don't like.

When I have faith that divine order is always at work, I feel less anxious and more peace believing that the best possible outcomes are unfolding. If I notice that I am thinking and acting in ways that do not demonstrate my faith, I turn my mind away from my problems and fears and instead focus on God. Even in the face of challenges, faith returns me to the love and peace of God.

"Whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

- Philippians 4:8
